WORLD BOOK DAY

Next Thursday, 6th March is World Book Day. We know that the children really enjoy dressing up and their costumes help to promote a love of books and reading. However, we recognise that general living costs are high so we don't want to add additional financial pressure. Therefore, like last year, the children can either come dressed as their favourite book character or as an adjective (or both!). Perhaps wear a ballet outfit and be 'graceful', your pyjamas and be 'comfy', or your oldest clothes and be scruffy. We look forward to seeing your ideas (Pengelly will still be swimming on this afternoon, so preferably something they can change out of!) There will be prizes for the best costumes/ideas. We look forward to seeing what you come up with.
